TIFFIN, OHIO, THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1869.

THE NIGHT-BELL.

-he might have said a felon with perfect justice, but he didn't-"some thing to drink. The kettle's boiling I like it with plenty of augar. I ain't particular. Gin, whiskey, brandy, and rum come all about alike to me. I'm food of the whole kit of An idea occurred to me. Somehow the creature seemed to read it in my face. "Fen larks I' he said, shaking his first at me with a savage sort of pleas-nutness. "Fen larks! No putting any doctor's stuff into a fellow's glass No hocusing. I know all about that. I don't want nothing out of the botties on those shelves; an hones drink, hot and strong, that's my line sed a mouthful of something to eat I shouldn't object to. They train one down a morsel too fine at that jug. It's almost as bad as the

I led the way to the kitchen. I set some cold beef before my guest. He devoured it like a wolf-making ravenous noises, grinding his teeth tearing his food with his fingers in preference to playing his knife and fork. "Oh! that you were in a cage in the Zoological Gardens!" I said to myself. "I'm sure they haven't a more dreadful beast in the whole collection of the Society." I mixed him a tumbler of hot brandy. He expressed his approval in cestatic gasps and gugg ings.

"I don't think I can do any thing more for you," I said. I begun to wish very much indeed that he would go. I may safely say that I had far more than enough of him.

"I call this out and out jolly," he said crossing his legs, "I don't know when I've been so comforta-I could stay here forever. You haven't got any tobacco, have you? Well. I thought you might chance to have such a thing somewhere in the house. You're a good sort of a doc. tor, as I said before. But you an't taken nothing yourself." He pushed the bottle over to my side of the table with the air of being the

I felt exhausted and sadly in need of a stimulant, otherwise the idea of drinking brandy and water in the reciety of this fearful desperado have been revolting enough. It makes a save that when I might?

I know all about him. He suo again? Was I to get no sleep at all that night?

There was the sound of something JOHNSON'S ADIEU. more and more with the reflection that my profession protected me. I determined to confine myself to a medical view of the position-to regard the man simply as a patient, and to the fact that he was an escaped conviet, who ought in strictness at once handed over to justice, supposing it was anyhow possible so to hand it Ought I to be ashamed to say that we sat for some time-an age it seem. ed to me-conversing, sipping grog, and smoking in my kitchen? To do the convict justice, I must say that he did his best, after his manner, to be entertaining. He didn't get much beyond being appalling, however. Suddenly he started up with an oath and scream. The night-bell began ringing vio-

"It's the bobbies come after me. not going to let them in ?"

door," I said as coolly as I could. I stood up and prepared to leave the

"You're not going to blow on me? If I thought you were going to blow "I suppose it must have been the peared, that the escape of the conon me—' He wore a wonder mare," he said, scratching his head, vict from the county juil had any ious.

you, who you are, or what you are. home, sir." You're safe so far as I'm concerned. Let me pass."

He stood silent, motionless, glartainly an awful moment. "I'll trust you," he said, and he let

I felt, so far as I had time for feelelly maltreated indeed.

Hoskins could give very little account of what had happened. His bid I hope that he would make lost nothing. ideas on the subject were curiously good his escape? Well, I hardly Hands seized me from behind, together," as people say.

lightning, sir," he said at length. What did?"

"This on my face." "You say who struck you?" He had a difficulty about answer-

were to see him, Hoskins?"

This was confidently spoken. Still quite as much as he pretended to lent. know. I had some acquaintance with the peculiarities of police oa-ture. I was well aware that they were apt to cover great depths of stu pidity and ignorance with a flimsy vail of sagacity and reticence. "It must have been like a blow from a sledge hammer, Hoskins." "Ah! or may be a ship-carpenter's mallet.' I became more and more persuaded that the man did not in the least know how or from what quarter the blow had been struck. "Or a kick from a horse," I said,

"They'll keep on rioging and rouse fell. The malster's old chestnut justly faued. the whole street if I don't go to the mare. Still I shouldn't have thought He never to a she'd as much as a kick left in her -- er. You know, sir, that mare's five and twenty years old if she's a day." ered from the effects of the blow he people of the United States, a few "The sex, Hoskins, the sex," I said had received. He never was able to parting words in vindication of an fully bloodthirsty look as he said He abandoned all attempt at mystifi- sort of connection with the fact that In a period of difficulty and tur this, and he spoke in a sort of a cation. He avowed his consummate on the same night he had received moil, almost without precedent in the hourse scream. history of any people, consequent kins.

"Well, only a sip, sir," Hoskin's ing at me for a moment. It was cer- notion of a sip was of a more generous kind than most people's. "Get to bed, Hoskins, and don't er than to censure his excess.

HE

vague. He seemed puzzling himself know. I'm afraid some of us are apt clasped me round the neck, roughly for a long time "to put two and two to experience a reprehensible sort of enough, and brought me to the ing this question. Possibly he con faith that justice would some day person at the time-for lost, ceived himself to be already prosecut evertake him. But I did not want Suddenly some unexpecte it," he suid. "Mose than two, may the sound of footsteps in the atreet.

have been revolting enough. It mates as easy just when I might falling into the letter box. Then the seemed clear, however, that he meant happen to want em." were heard further down the street-I wasn't satisfied that Hoskins knew in the distance. Then all was si-

> In the letter box I found my two silver tea spoons !- The ruffing pos sessed a conscience, then, He had been ashamed of himself and of his ingratitude. At some risk he had paused in his flight-had retraced his steps-to return the property of al limitation, this day falls from my which his first impulse had been to shoulders, to be immediately assumed rob me. I began to be rather proud by my successor. For him the forof my desperado-to entertain hope ful views of criminals in general. Blancombe was greatly surprised .- bition to gratify party ends or subas I stooped once more to examine The fact, indeed, was not credited serve personal quarrels, or to avenge the wound. "Do you know, Hoskins. generally, until it was published, a myself at the sacrifice of the peace I would't take upon myself to swear fortnight afterward, in a provincial and welfare of the country, my earnthat it wasn't a kick from a horse?" paper. Still the faith of the town in est desire is to see the Constitution "You really think it might have its prison was not much shaken, and of the Republic again recognized and and his short hair bristling apon his air. "Well, it's odd, but there is a fagitive would be very soon recapture land and the whole people North, head. He seized a knife. "You're horse grazing in that meadow just of owing to the blanch of the blanch." horse grazing in that meadow just ed, owing to the admirable system of South, East and West, prosperous below the bridge, close to where I police for which Blancombe was so and happy under its wise provisions.

> "Just another sip of brandy, Hos- settled about the matter. Some- President; it was, perhaps, too much times he inclined to the "kick from a on my part to expect of devoted parborse" view of the case; at other tisans, who rode on the waves of extimes he returned to his original idea eitement, which, at that time, awept that it was all "a put-up thing," and all before them, that degree of tolerthat "there was more than one of ation and magnanimity which I

This is a bad job, doctor," he by Hoskin's proceedings. It did not considered that I ought at any risk ing as the reliable head of a party,

But I wasn't much hurt, and I

The Circle Complete - He Leaves off Where he Began - I'' "My Policy." "The Constitution" and "The Fing with Stars,"-Parting Rick at the United Stars, "Parting Rick at the United States Congress - Bishonorable Service Shamelessly Reviewed Importent Ha-vings of a Vain Bemagogue - "Fareweil a Long Farewell, to all my Greatness."

WASHINGTON, D. C. March 3.

It was known in due course that a administer the Government within prisoner-an old and hardened offen- the pale of the Federal Constitution der-had escaped from the jail .- are sincerely invoked. Without am-In surrendering the high office to He never was recaptured, howev- which I was called four years ago at Policeman Hoskins speedily recov. my privilege, I trust, to say to the cred from the effects of the blow he people of the United States, a few

THE NIGHT-BELLA

[CONCLUERD.]

The conclusion of the face of this season of the constitutional question is greated it, was an error which and, Be was necessary to the constitutional question of the face which as the case. He said that Hoskins of the case of ar to those I had so recently been see after my other patient. The room | Sergeant Binks had his opinion of the consciousness of having attempt- inaugurated it, was an error which which no constitutional question is ilistically rather than anatomically as the "muzard." As far as I could discover, after a brief examication, up bones were broken; nor did it appear that any of his teeth wore missing, though they had probably been loosened. His lower lip had been examiced for some few others at through as with a kuife, and had been few of the was that it had been disfranchis gludge when reminded of the ruinous of the People. And have resulted from the continuance in the military service of such a vast the letter and spirit of the Constitution. While such marks party claims that the county jall had been totally our domestic conflict found the army of his teeth wore missing, though they had probably been loosened. His lower lip had been cut through as with a kuife, and had swollen to a prodigious size.

And the convict—did I ever see that the dosor of public affers that may be into a departure from the continuance in the military service of such a vast the letter and spirit of the closs of that the close of the military service of such a vast the letter and spirit of the constitution. While such hars party claims of the military service of such a vast the letter and spirit of the constitution. While such hars party of the military service of such a vast the letter and spirit of the constitution. While such hars party of the motive that the county jall had been totally our domestic conflict on the military service of such a vast the letter and spirit of the constitution. While such hars party of the motive that the county is the military service of such a vast the letter and spirit of the Constitution. While such hars party of the unduo assendancy of the military service of such a vast the letter and spirit of the constitution. While such hars a party claim the letter and spirit of the close of the letter and spirit of the constitution. While such hars a party claim the letter and spirit of the constitution. While such hars a party claim the letter and spirit of the constitution. While such hars a constitution of the meditary the that the convict had described the convict h condition of the victim with the spoons. The ble accuracy. Hoskins had been "knocked silly," It might be that but one hlow had been afflicted by a criminal but one hlow had been afflicted by a criminal consument, when the rebellion was however, in falling, from the effect of the wine consciousness and the wind power, in falling, from the effect of the wine consciousness and the wind power of the surest and having pretty much their own way in serving devotion to the against the hard ground. A little more—one can nover avoid in the season considering what would have been the consequence of "a little more" of the injury—Hoskins was when a professional more? of the injury—Hoskins was without and law been not merely knocked silly, he would have been not merely knocked, and of my professional more? of the injury—Hoskins was without and law had been afflicted by a criminal deplacement of the National bank had been afflicted by a criminal deplacement of the surest and having pretty much their own way in suring devotion to the Union, and occupying a torce concarged when which lit has more than a professional power and the surest and proves, would be the surest and proved his surgence of the Sattle the honor of the Sattl the army were, for the time being, in the ensign of power so dreadfully and began to prate about the thou the direction indicated. Taking adthe direction indicated. Taking adthe families and friends of his mythe families and friends of his mybeen casy, as the Commander inthe families. The fear which he had chief of the army and navy, with all inspired continued after his voluntary to experience a reprehensible sort of enough, and brought me to the sections of the abdication and went into retirement, dice engendered between the sections of enough, and brought me to the power and patronage of the abdication and went into retirement, dice engendered between the sections of enough, and brought me to the the power and patronage of the abdication and went into retirement, dice engendered between the sections of enough, and brought me to the Constitution and went into retirement, dice engendered between the sections of the power and patronage of the abdication and went into retirement, dice engendered between the sections of the power and patronage of the abdication and went into retirement. His will was law to a people who had to retard the restoration of peace and then become the sections of the power and patronage of the abdication and went into retirement. "It came to me like a fineh of the permitted themselves to be custaved in the desperate ingenuity and harding strongth. I experienced a untion against French interference in What but a subtle knowledge and keep open and exposed to the point of the permitted themselves to be custaved in the desperate ingenuity and harding strongth. the desperate ingenuity and hardihood oftentimes evided by prisoners was of being giddy, a sense of chowho break their bonds and defy arrest. I did not very fervently desire his recapture. I had a vague sort of faith that justice would some day overtake him. But I did not want the law to inconvenience itself by me for a moment. I experienced a mation against French interference in Mexico, and to inaugurate a moveoutput and hardihood oftentimes evided by prisoners sense of being giddy, a sense of chowhen the interference in Mexico, and to inaugurate a moveto the conviction that the Poman people to the conviction that the Poman people some of the porty passion the

had become changed disconraged and
to the low as people are
to the porty passion the
had become changed disconraged and
to the porty passion the
had become changed disconraged and
to the low as people are
to the porty passion the
had become changed disconraged and
to the low as people are
to the low as people are
to the people are
to the low as people are
to the low as people are
to the people are
to the low as people are
to the ing some one for the assault, and the law to inconvenience itself by ence was at work. My assailants additional powers tended to the Experience of the distinguishment principle of the Government pri perceived that the case against the prisoner depended almost altogether upon the nature of his reply. He winked at me, as well as the swollen candition of his face would let him with an air of being very acute and cantious. He nodded his head signature. He could be expected to divulge.

"They fell back as by word of common of the ground, and left me periment? We find that in the time the President the right and the Freedmen's Butter, and tyrant the his startling and the Freedmen's Butter, a stairs to my bedroom. I had but two miles on my way before I cn
"There's more than ene of 'em in i, he swil "Mose than two, may the swil the sound of footsteps in the street. I waited, listening. Some one, shut the sound of footsteps in the street. I waited, listening. Some one, shut the sound of footsteps in the street. I waited listening. Some one, shut the sound of the swill wait, laid to be considered and treacherous in conflict with the original design of the manded in the name of a bold, defient and treacherous of the mystery of the case. My continuous the would find one explanation of the would have been no difficult task to desict a pleasure the destinies of the would come to be considered to thou would have been no difficult task to desict a pleasure the destinies of the swill wait the sound of footsteps in the street. I waited live or of a bold, defient and treacherous of the constitution. This proves how necessary in would find one explanation of the would come to be considered to the mystery of the case. My continuous of the street of the proposition of a bold, defient and treacherous of the would come to be considered to the mystery of the case. My continuous of the street. They have robbed the street. I waited live or deficit the sound of sound of some their or would come to be considered to the street. I waited would come to be considered to the street. I waited would come to be considered to the street. I waited would come to be considered to the street. I waited would come to be considered to the street. I waited would come to be considered to the street. They have been no difficult task to desire the slain in the street. They would come to be considered to the street. I waited would come to be considered to the street. I waited would c hours of a laborious term, consider plish party ends, would receive the in favor of party adherents. They the nation bless how different would have been the passive submission if not the acqui- have conspired to change the system rable a result. how different would have been the passive automission if not the acquirence of the people of the Repubpresent condition hed I yielded to the escence of the people of the Repubdazzling temptation of foreign conlie? It has been clearly demonstrate charges against the President in the guests, of personal aggrandizement, ed by recent occurrences that on form of articles of impeachment, and land, will principally devolve the solemn quests, of personal aggrandizement, ed by recent occurrences that enand the desire to wield additional power. Let them, with justice, consider that if I have not unduly magdent, however devoted be may be, arrest, held in durance, and, when the personal aggrandizement, and duty of personaling the nulon of the States, trial, that he should be placed under in the defense of which hundreds of thousands of their comrades expired, and hunstate personal aggrandizement.

I have not unduly magthe people interpose. nified mine office, the public burdens that unless the people interpose, it become their pleasure to pronounce were incurred. A manly people will not Washington, D. C. starch 3.

To the People of the United States:

The robe of office, by constitutional limitation, this day falls from my shoulders, to be immediately assumed by my successor. For him the forby my successor. For him the forbearance and co-operation of the bearance and co-op crites, ever seeks to grasp more and as might follow legislative usurpa- deranged currency and the enhances serving the Republic.

Collmly reviewing my Administratolin of price of all the necessaries. unwarranted power, and to accom- tion; yet there is danger that the ment in price of all the necessaries the Government I feel that with a sense of What, then, have been the aspira- right to change their ruler except by ment of their measures of oppression; tions which guided me in my official revolution. We have already seen they have engaged in class legislaacts. Those acts need not, at this the jurisdiction of the judiciary cir- tion, and built and encouraged montime, an elaborate explanation.— cumscribed, when it was apprehend opolies that the few might be enrich-They have been comprehensively and ed that the Courts would decide ed at the expense of the many: they They have been comprehensively and fully discussed, and become a part of the nation's history. By them I am the nation's history. By them I am ready to be judged knowing that, however imperfect, they at least show to the impartial mind, that my sole ambition has been to restore the union of the States, faithfully to execute the office of President, and, to the best of my ability, to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution I can not be censured if my efforts have been impeded in the interests the base been impeded in the interests.

The Constitution evidently contained and protection of the particle of the particle of the expense of the many: they have failed to act upon important treaties endangering our peacetal relations with foreign powers. It is a matter of pride and gratification, in the expense of the many: they have failed to act upon important treaties endangering our peacetal relations with foreign powers.

Their course of usurpation has long, arducus and eventful public life, my action has never been influenced by gain, not been limited to inroads upon the Executive Department by unconstitutional and oppressive enactments, The people of ten States of the Union have been reduced to a condition more intolerable than that from which the patriots of the a memorable and terrible crisis, it is ambition has been to restore the and exercised by Washington and the Executive Department by unkitchen door, barring my way out, gravely. "You never can be quite give other than a very vague account official course so ceaselessly assailed protect and defend the Constitution. Legislature. of the misfortune that had befallen him. He had no suspicion, as it appeared, that the escape of the converted from the county jail had any vict from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the county jail had any correspond to the converted from the converted f of the country was made the occasion the practice under the present party than our forefathers did of British and the Union, one and inseparable. of inflaming and dividing still further rules. It has become evident that tyrants, that they have forbidden those who were only recently in arms men who pass a bill under partisan the governments to pass laws of "No," I said; "I know nothing of "And now I think I'll try and get blow that had "knocked him siliy." upon the closing scenes of a great re- those who were only recently in arms men who pass a bill under partisan the governments to pass laws of ou, who you are, or what you are, home, sir."

But his opinion was never absolutely bellion, and the assassination of the patriotic motives, to admit their ershall over believe, of burying all hostile feelings in the grave of the past, the bitter war was waged on the part of the Government to vindicate the of the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of
the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of
the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of
the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of
the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of
the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of
the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of
the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of
the Government to vindicate the official oath, pride of the Government to vindicate the oath of the Government to vindicate Constitution and save the Union. vened and prevented a calm and distriction and save the Union. vened and prevented a calm and distriction in the to have spaken? Answer The you get up to morrow until I've seen 'em in it—more than two may be."— sought to recommend and enforce, you. I'll come to you pretty early. At last he was heard to avow that he and which I believe, in good time.

cles of attire, and was much relieved of my conduct. It would clearly be of all that was true, loyal and deserve by Hoskin's proceedings. It did not seem to occur to him for a moment of my own life to have thrown my whatever I might have been as the thrown my whatever I might have been as the thrown my that any liberties had been taken self upon the convict, mastered him, executive of a nation. How was needed was accomplished by the it ought to be immediately certified jurisdiction foreign to our Constitute of the Supreme Court of the United "This is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered inarticulately.

"It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered in marmered in that any like tits any like tits any like tits any like tits any like to the Supreme Court of the United to the Supreme Court of the United States for its decision. It is oostil to the Supreme Court of the United States for its decision.

"And then he tried to stand, and tum."

It is a bad job, doctor," he marmered in that any like the surface of marmer through which the surface of the surfa

If colt, so far as I had time for feeling or of taking note of any feelings, that my life had been in very conaiderable peril just then.

I want to the front-door, for the ringing still continued. I found the theory of the ringing still continued. I found the door step. This proved to be Policeman Hoskins, in a very lamentable condition. He had loss his coat and hat—he was severed with mid; his face was evered with mid; his face was swellen, cut, and bleeding. It was swellen, cut, and bleeding. It was sevilent that he had been very condition that he had been very condendatory of my sould be the secutive of the parties. The whole country that we have shown the control of the parties of the parties. The man crouched upon the door step. This proved to be Policeman Hoskins was very lamentable condition. He had loss this coat and hat—he was severed with mid; his face was every and with mid; his face was every condendatory of my adventure. I feared that public opposes of those articles and was much relieved of a special and opposes of these public as the commencement of my term of offices and prosperity than we have always to which near trouble and entities equations, it was add that he was seveled as defect the do it."

The was to contain the condition of his proved by the executive. Much discovered in stations, it was advanced us in fairties on the constitution, it was advanced us in fairties on the constitution, it was advanced us in fairties on the constitution, it was advanced us in fairties on the constitution, it was advanced us in fairties on the constitution, it was advanced us in fairties on the constitution, it was advanced us in fairties on the constitution, it was advanced us in fairties on distinct that the mass do to prevent trouble and the mid that he was of prevent trouble and the thread that was streeted and the secretive of the secretive of the safety of offices and the constitution, it was addentified that this seconding of all state on the constitution, it was addentified that this seconding of a plish its purpose, panders too often same power which disregards the of life; they have maintained a accountability to God, naving conscientions so popular prejudice and party aims. Constitution will deprive them of the large standing army for the enforce- ly endeavored to discharge my whale daty.

NUMBER 21

of trial by jury, taken away our charters, excited domestic insurrection among us, abolished but most valuable laws, altered fundamentally the forms of our Government, suspended our own Legislatures, and declared themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whalsoever.

This catalogue of crimes, long as it is, is not complete. The the mittaken was the judicial power at the United States in the Supreme Court, whose justication shall extend to all come erating under the Consti-Burouraged by this promise, a religger from Lyranne, a citizen of the United States also, by the order of a military community, given, under the sauction of a crust and delifion under the sametion of a crust and delifterate edict of Congress, had been denied the constitutional rights or library of conscience, treadom of the pers, and of speech personal fraction from unitury acrost of being held to answer for crime only apost present ment of an indictment; of trial by jerry of the artis of habitat corput, and the protection of a civil and constitutional government. ment. A civil and constitutional govern-ment. A citizen thus deeply wronged ap-peals to the Supreme Court for the protec-tion guaranteed him by the organic law of the hand. Atoucs a ferrer and schelled majority by the rathless hand of legislative powers stripped the ermine from the Juriges, transferred the sword of Justice to the Ouctal, and remained the appreciate these to a degradation and bondage were than death. It will also be recorded as one of

I have nothing to regret. Events have proved the correctness of the policy set forth in my first and subsequent mossages. The worst which have followed the rejection of forbearance, magnanimity and constitutional

[Signed] ANDREW JORSON, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4, 1869. The following dialogue is said to